

Holocaust Dilemma

Your name is Ana and you are fifteen. You are living in Krusevac, German occupied Serbia, during the Second World War. You live with your parents and younger brother Filip (10 years old).

One night one of your school, friend knocks on your door. He tells you that he has been sent by his mother who knows one Jewish family (parents and two small children) that needs to find a new safe house. His father had been arrested for anti-German activities a few days ago.

Your family is respected and trusted by the local community as well as German authorities, and the Jewish family has nowhere else to go.

Will you shelter them?
