

Rebeca Solomon With Relatives

The one on the left is Rebeca Solomon, my mother's cousin from Galati, with her husband and someone else I don't know, probably a relative. Aunt Rebeca was the daughter of one of my grandmother Basea Soifer's sisters from my mother's side. She married in Galati, her husband's family name was Solomon. My grandmother's sister also had a son who was a physician and lived in Cernauti. I believe he died during World War II, I never heard from him since.