

Greeting Card From Israel Sent By Vera's Cousin

This is a card from my cousin. His mother Irma was my mother's sister.

Irma married Sandor Gluck and later they magyarised their surname. They had several children. Istvan was one of them. He was a merchant and he made aliya in 1938 to avoid forced labor.

The family survived the Holocaust in Budapest and when they were old, they went to live with one of their sons in Israel.
