

Mair Levi's Daughter's Wedding

This is the wedding of Mair Levi's daughter, my husband's cousin. She got married to an Israeli boy. The picture was sent to us in 1992. Mair Levi is my husband Jack's cousin from Plovdiv. He lived in Herzlia, Israel together with his wife and his younger son. Mair has a two-floor house. He lives on the second floor. There is a large living room as well as two bedrooms, a dining room, a kitchen and bathrooms there. When I was in Israel, Mair and his daughter came to take me from Jaffa to Herzlia, Tel Aviv and other cities on our route. She has a little boy, about 4 years old.
