

Mazal Asael's Mother Delicia Eshkenazi And Brothers Eliezer And Samuil Eshkenazi

This is my mother Delicia and two of my brothers. Eliezer is on the right and Samuil is on the left. The photo was taken in the 1960s in Jaffa at the wedding of Eliezer's daughter. I have three brothers. The oldest one, Eliezer, is from my father's first marriage. He used to live together with my mother and father. After that his maternal grandmother took him to live with her. In 1941 he came back to live with our family. My two other brothers are Benjamin and Samuil. They all graduated from the Jewish school in Sofia. My two older brothers were sent to labour camps during the Holocaust and spent there a couple of years. They left for Israel together with my parents.
