

Letter From Alexander Bachnar's Students

Continuation of letter No. 2: We've got it pretty good. Luckily we've got an apartment and that's good here. We don't know anything about Elke nor about Litke or Ana. All of us children would like to see you again. Mr. Principal, when you come to Bystrica, come visit us. Dolna St. 62. We send our greeting to Dura Spitzer and everyone. I very much hope that we will see each other again, and will recall those days. We came through Vtacnik that Saturday, and we're already
