

Alica Gazikova And Colleagues Floating Down The Danube

The photograph was taken in the year 1956, during a recreational company outing. It shows us on the Danube River, which we were navigating downstream on rafts. During summer vacation we would go on holidays around Czechoslovakia. They were those advantageous ROH recreational activities. So we were for example for cultural recreation in Prague, all ROH. We were in the Krkonose Mountains, we were in Marianske Lazne around two or three times. In fact even for our honeymoon in 1954 we went on an ROH trip to Marianske Lazne.
