

Maurice Beza With Members Of The Move Motorcyclist Union

This is a photograph of my father-in-law, Maurice Beza, taken in 1927 in Thessaloniki. I got married in 1956. My wife, Yvette Leon, nee Beza, was born in 1935 in Thessaloniki. My father-in-law, Maurice Beza, was a member of a motorcyclist union called Move, in Greek MOBE, before the war. Its members were both Jews and non-Jews. They were the pioneers of motorcycling sport in Thessaloniki. Those sitting in the first row have the letters of the union MOBE written on the soles of their shoes. My father-in-law is the second from right to left with the letter 'O' on his shoe.
