

Rosetta Deutsch, Aleksandar Nacak's Mother's Friend

The Deutsch family lived next door to my mother's family in Senta. There were three children there: Rosetta, Jovan and Viktor. Their mother was called Silvija Deutsch. In 1932 Rosetta married a wealthy Hungarian Jew called Gorog. After their wedding they went to live in London where they remained until their deaths. Rosetta and her husband had a son named Eddie.
